

Change Management Awareness

Each content can be adapted according to your needs.

PEDAGOGICAL OBJECTIVES

- Understand the basics of change
- Understand change in your organization

- Why change management is important
- How to deal with change (intrapersonal and interpersonal)

TOPICS COVERED

Maximizing the adaptability of change is essential for an organization in the current world. This training will help you onboard change management within your organization and create awareness around it.

Change Fundamentals

> What is change management? Why is it important? "What's in it for me" concept?

Change approaches

> High-level different approaches towards change management

Key benefits

Clarify the return on investment for the organization and the people within

Awareness & Desire

> Create an appetite to make out of change management a priority

